

5 WAYS TO PRAY FOR SUPPORT-RAISING

PROVISION AT JUST THE RIGHT TIME.

- You can and will provide for all my needs (Philippians 4:19).
- You know when I am to go overseas, and have ordained good works there at the proper time--not too early, not too late (Ephesians 2:10, Acts 17:26).
- You own the cattle on a thousand hills (Psalm 50:10). This is not just about the destination for You, but the journey.

TRUST, PEACE, & COURAGE.

- Protect me from the fear of people, rejection, and the trampling of my personal idols (like security, comfort, control, & approval; Psalm 20:7, Proverbs 29:25).
- I am not a slave to fear. Let my identity be grounded in you, being strong and courageous, knowing this task is Yours (Joshua 1:9).

THE RIGHT TEAM, LOVED WELL.

- You have chosen the perfect combination of senders for me, in whom I can also invest and love. Free me from walking by sight (2 Corinthians 5:7), from my expectations of others enslaving me.
- Help me to truly see those on my team, who are also changed by this journey. Let me love the people in front of me, whether or not they support me. If I reach my goal but have not love, I have nothing (1 Corinthians 13:1-3).

DEEPER KNOWLEDGE OF GOD; RESPONSE TO HIM.

- I consider all a loss compared to the surpassing greatness of knowing You; our relationship isn't based on my ability to achieve or perform (Philippians 3:8-9).
- In each of my day-to-day tasks, let your glory and renown be my desire--even in the waiting (Isaiah 26:8).
- Keep my eyes on the prize to which you've called me heavenward (Philippians 3:14).
- Help me listen and respond to your Spirit (Galatians 5:25).

PREP FOR WHAT'S AHEAD.

- Grant me experiences to make my arms strong for tasks ahead (Psalm 18:34).
- Use my obstacles to develop endurance, character, hope, and a greater understanding of your love (Romans 5:5).
